LISSONE (MB) MUSEUM OF CONTEMPORARY ART

JOSÉ MIGUEL PEREÑÍGUEZ SI THE WINNER OF THE 2010 EDITION OF THE LISSONE PRIZE

The long preliminary part of the 2010 Lissonne Prize has come to an end with the selection of 45 young artists made by more than one thousand Art Galleries located in France, Great Britain, Germany, Hungary, Spain and Italy.

After a long-lasting discussion, the jury has assigned the prize to JOSÉ MIGUEL PEREÑÍGUEZ (Seville, 1977) whose work Xvarnah Landscape will be part of the prestigious collection of the museum accompanying those of the past winners of the Lissonne Prize such as Antoni Tàpies, José Guinovart and Luis Feito, Appel, Dufrene, Schneider, Werner, Morlotti, Dorazio, Vedova, Perilli, Scanavino, Adami and many others.

The Spanish artist was chosen “for a language of painting and signing that comes through a sophisticated elaboration of shape and space able to develop a new interpretation of sensitive data”.

In the selection phase, the jury has also indicated two artists – Alessandro Di Pietro (Messina, 2987) and Marisa Favretto (Seward, Alaska, 1974) who won a Special Mention for “having revisited painting and photography through a mental reformulation of territory” the first and for the “visual synthesis of masterpieces that go inside territories linked to a visionary and symbolic feature” the second.

Daniela Ronchi, the Lissonne Municipal Alderman for Culture, Identity and Local Traditions in the Municipality of Lissone said: “it is an honor for me to assign this prize to José Miguel Pereñíguez, whose work, chosen among 45 finalists, for the quality and the fineness of a sophisticated expressive language, will be part of the Museum of Contemporary Art collection with the works of artists such as Tàpies, Appel, Morlotti, Vedova, Dufrene, Werner, Adami and others. I also want to thank the jury for its huge effort to chose all the works that will be shown tonight.”

Members of the jury were Daniele Astrologo, Director of the Museum Bodini in Gemonio, Gianni Bolongare, collector and responsible of the Park for environment art La Marrana in Montemarcello (La Spezia), Mario Casanova, director of the Centre for Contemporary Art of Ticino, CACT, in Bellinzona (Switzerland), Luidi Cavadini, Art Director of the Museum of Contemporary Art in Lissone, Lydie Di Meo, Director of the Di Meo Galley in Paris, Manuela Magliano, collector, Alberto Fiz, Art Director of the Museum of Art in Catanzaro – MARCA, and Ermes Meloni, responsible for the Famiglia Artistica Lissonese.

All the finalists will show their works in an exhibition hosted in the Museum of Contemporary Arti in Lissone, from November 18, 2010 to January 23, 2011.
