CALL FOR ENTRIES

The Lissone Department of Culture and its Modern Art Museum announce the Premio Lissone 2014, the international competition for young, emerging artists under 35, which was re-launched in 2002 and has been held on a two-year basis since 2006.

The award, which boasts a prestigious tradition going back to the extraordinary editions of the 1950s and '60s, sets itself the following goals:

- promotion and enhancement of contemporary art and its many languages
- creation of opportunities for exchange, as well as acting as a showcase, for young, up-and-coming artists
- development of working relationships and synergies between entities operating in the sector
- increase the museum collection of the town of Lissone

The Award involves the individual participation of artists.

Entries shall be assessed by a Committee, which will then select the artists from which the Panel of Judges will choose the winner of the Premio Lissone 2014.

1. Criteria for admission to the selection phase

Italian and foreign artists born after 31 December 1978 are eligible to enter the Premio Lissone.

Works attributable to the language as well as the idea of painting itself will be accepted; major attention will be dedicated not only to the traditional discipline (on canvas or paper) but also to related objects and concepts, on unconventional and three-dimensional supports, particularly within the scope of "expanded painting".

Entrance to the competition is free.

  - 3 digital images (jpg format with 300 dpi resolution, maximum 4MB per image) of the 3 works to be presented for the award. All works must have been executed in the 2013-2014 two-year period

The selection committee and judging panel will be made up of a minimum of 5 and maximum of 7 members. Each group shall be independent of the other; the Museum director shall preside as chairman over both meetings.

The decisions made during the selection and prize giving phases will be majority based. The decisions of the selection committee and panel of judges are final.

Finalists will be chosen based on the original nature of the entry and consistency in research, as well as for the candidate's artistic qualities. A minimum of 20 to a maximum of 49 artworks may be selected. The Committee shall decide whether to exhibit two or just one work per artist, on the basis of that number.

The Premio Lissone 2014 shall also include a direct invitation section, curated by the artistic Director of the Modern Art Museum. Works by invited artists shall be considered "out of competition" and shall not compete in any way for the assignment of cash prizes.

6. Delivery of the artworks

Each invited artist shall present the works indicated by the selection committee. The format shall be no smaller than 100 x 100 cm or larger than 160 x 160 cm; polyptychs or series that comply with the above-mentioned dimensions shall be allowed.

By 7 October 2014, the artists shall deliver their entries to the Lissone Modern Art Museum (Viale Padania, 6, 20851, Lissone, MB, Italy) accompanied by the relative loan sheets, duly completed and signed.

Shipping costs (both ways, including any customs fees) will be borne by the artists. No works shall be accepted on rolled up paper.

Deliveries charged to the addressee are not permitted: packages sent in this way shall be returned to sender.

Collection of the artworks shall also be the exclusive charge of the artists, who shall see to packing and transporting the works at the end of the exhibition. If a transport company or courier is hired, please check that the said company will also pack the artwork for collection. The Museum or the Municipality shall not be held liable for any damage caused in transport.

The Municipality shall take the utmost care of the artworks, providing due security and surveillance from their time of delivery until their return. The competition organisers shall arrange for all-risk insurance during their time at the museum.

7. Prizes

The panel of judges may also award other cash prizes, for a total of € 5,000.00 net of statutory deductions.
